Case Number: 3:11-CR-055

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of FIFTY-ONE (51) MONTHS.

You can appeal your conviction if you believe that your guilty plea was somehow unlawful or involuntary, or if there is some other fundamental defect in the proceedings that was not waived by your guilty plea. You also have a statutory right to appeal your sentence under certain circumstances, particularly if you think the sentence is contrary to law. With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be filed within 14 days after sentence is imposed on you. If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, you may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. If you so request, the Clerk of the Court will prepare and file a notice of appeal on your behalf.

□The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
■ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district.
☐ ata.m./p.m. on ☐ as notified by the U.S. Marshal.
□ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons, □ before 2 p.m. on □ as notified by the United States Marshal. □ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office. □ The defendant is to contact the United States Marshal's Office no later than three days prior to the above date to be notified of the place of confinement.	e

Case Number: 3:11-CR-055

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of THREE (3) YEARS.

Within seventy-two (72) hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which he is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime and shall not posses a dangerous weapon. The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions adopted by this Court and the following additional conditions:

- The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample as directed by the probation officer, unless a sample was collected during imprisonment.
- The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencing supervision and at least two periodic drug tests threafter for use of a controlled substance.
- The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment schedule for payment of restitution or special assessment.
- The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
- The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached pages.
